The Cherry Blossom Kite & Piñata Festival is a spring celebration of culture and Springfield's sister city relationship with both Isesaki, Japan and Tlaquepaque, Mexico. The event is held outside the Botanical Center within the extraordinary Springfield Botanical Gardens. Kite flying and piñata breaking are main attractions along with other family-friendly activities.

Vendor and artist space is limited and distributed on a first-come, first-served basis with priority given to those who represent either Japanese or Mexican culture. Vendors are required to provide a City of Springfield business license, carry insurance, and are responsible for collecting and paying sales tax and reporting to the IRS.

Vendor and artists spaces are 12'x12' and cost $50. A 10'x10' tent, one table, and two chairs can be provided if needed. If inclement weather forces the event inside the Botanical Center, one half of the vendor fee may be refunded.
